

6, or 8 Hour Private Car Tour:

THE HAGUE / DELFT: "Palaces, Paintings & Pottery"

Historical The Hague – Government center – Mauritshuis – Royal Palace – Delft Blue Pottery – Historical Delft

No hurry, no worries; lot of information about Dutch history, culture, architecture and society

Itinerary 6 hour tour: The Hague: See the modern Town Hall, walk through the mediaeval Government center. Visit the Mauritshuis: a small museum with a top collection of paintings of Dutch Golden Age: "Anatomic lesson" by Rembrandt, "View on Delft", "Girl with Pearl Earring" by Vermeer, "The Gold Finch" by Fabricius. We agree on a time you like to spent in this small museum (usually about 1 hour). Time for having a light lunch in a nice Dutch restaurant (included). Continue walking tour: Royal Palace, Prison Gate, 19th century shopping mall.

Itinerary 8 hour tour, adding Delft: Leave The Hague and drive 20 min. to Delft: a beautiful, well preserved 17th Century town, famous for Delft Blue Pottery and: the town of Vermeer! Start the city walking tour, see original hand painting of Delft blue pottery, the New Church with its famous baroque tomb of the Dutch Royal Family, the market Square with 17th Century town hall, have a walk in the small streets with scenic canals and bridges.
